Office of Violence Prevention/Peacekeepers Coffee Join Us at Stockton Adult School

(Stockton, CA) – The Office of Violence Prevention (OVP) and Peacekeepers will host a free coffee and conversation at Stockton Unified School District’s Stockton Adult School, 1525 Pacific Avenue, Wednesday, September 6, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. OVP and Stockton Adult School are partnering to provide education and information about issues of violence in our community.

“By sharing information and building awareness of programs and services available in our community, we can reach more people who can access agencies and organizations that we collaborate with to help prevent violence from occurring,” said LaTosha Walden, Office of Violence Prevention Manager. “Our goal is to let them know who we are, what we do, and how to reach OVP and our partners.”

Members of the community are welcome and encouraged to join in the conversation. Coffee will be served on the lawn in front of the Stockton Adult School.

For more information, please call (209) 937-8880, visit www.stocktonca.gov/ovp or e-mail ovp@stocktonca.gov.
