AMGEN Tour of California Stockton Route Traveler Alerts May 14 Street Closure Information

STOCKTON, Calif. – On Tuesday, May 14, 2019, downtown Stockton will host Stage 3 of the AMGEN Tour of California, a 777-mile cycling race through 13 host cities, from Sacramento to Pasadena. Signs will line the Stockton course route, and spectators are encouraged. All travelers should be aware of street closures and travel alerts.

Cyclists will begin this leg of the tour near the Stockton Arena at approximately 10:05 a.m., to loop the course twice including east on Fremont Street, south on Center Street, and east on Weber Avenue to El Dorado Street – before ultimately heading west on state Route 4 / Charter Way. Street closures will be in effect from 9:45 – 11:30 a.m. Streets will be closed to travel and through traffic.

Please plan your viewing spot, arrive early, watch for signs and traffic controls, and enjoy the race. For additional information about the Stockton leg of the AMGEN Tour of California and other tour day festivities – that begin as early as 8:30 a.m., please visit www.visitstockton.org or call 877-778-6258.
