City Council Meetings Held Online During Stay at Home Public Comments Accepted Online, Email and Telephone

STOCKTON, Calif. – During this time of local health concerns, the City of Stockton is following the State of California Executive Orders N-29-20 and N-33-20, which provide for holding public meetings electronically online. The City of Stockton will convene council meetings using online technology and members of the public can participate, while following the Stay at Home requirements currently in place statewide.

A link to the March 24, 2020, City Council Meeting is available under “Upcoming City Meeting Agendas” at www.stocktonca.gov/CouncilMeetings. The meeting will be streamed live on the website at the regularly scheduled time, 5:30 p.m. There are three ways for members of the public to submit comments about items on the agenda:

1. eComments – To use this feature, an account must be set-up in advance. It only takes a minute to set-up and can be linked to an email or Facebook account. eComments must be submitted by 4:00 p.m., will be shared with the City Council and placed into the meeting record. Please use this link to register and submit an eComment: <https://stockton.granicusideas.com/meetings>.
2. Email – Submit a comment via email to the City Clerk at City.Clerk@stocktonca.gov.
