CASE NO. 12-32118
DC No. PH-1
Chapter 9

NOTICE OF CONTINUED HEARING ON MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM AUTOMATIC STAY

Date: November 18, 2013
Time: 1:00 p.m.
Judge: Hon. Christopher M. Klein
Dept.: 501 I Street, 6th Floor
Dept. C; Courtroom No. 35
Sacramento, CA 95814

1 stated in the above caption), and Trustee’s counsel. The timeframes for the filing of any such 2 written opposition, objection, or response to the Motion shall be calculated in accordance with the 3 continued hearing date of November 18, 2013.

4 As demonstrated in Movants’ previously-filed Memorandum Of Points And Authorities,
5 and as summarized below, cause exists to order relief from the automatic bankruptcy stay to 6 enforce the Price Judgment before Judge Karlton in the United States District Court for the 7 Eastern District of California for at least three reasons. First, the Price Judgment requires the 8 construction of 340 lower income housing units to replace residences demolished as a result of 9 redevelopment. Only 161 of the replacement units have in fact been completed to date and, under 10 federal law, these are outstanding equitable obligations – not monetary debts – and are 11 accordingly not dischargeable in a bankruptcy proceeding. Second, the Price Judgment required
12 the creation of a $1.45 million fund to be paid to eligible claimants for relocation assistance.
13 After five years, and well prior to the City’s bankruptcy filing, the remaining balance (which is 14 over $1 million) was required to be set aside in a restricted fund of the Stockton Redevelopment
15 Agency, to be used only for construction of extremely low income housing. When California’s
16 redevelopment agencies were dissolved, the City of Stockton as “successor agency “ – a legal 17 entity separate from the City itself – elected to assume the former relocation agency’s obligations.
18 The obligations in the Price Judgment regarding the relocation assistance fund are thus not 19 obligations of the City at all but, rather, of the City in its capacity as the “successor agency” and 20 are accordingly not properly included within this bankruptcy estate. Finally, any analysis of the 21 various factors that Courts consider in evaluating whether to grant relief from stay favors the 22 Price Judgment Creditors and their efforts to enforce the long-overdue obligations in the Price
23 Judgment.

24 Pursuant to Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Price Judgment Creditors
25 respectfully request that the Court enter an order granting relief from the automatic bankruptcy
26 stay to permit judicial enforcement of the Price Judgment.
