Community Services Department Winter/Spring 2022 Activity Guide Programs, Services, and Resources For All Ages

STOCKTON, Calif. – The City of Stockton Community Services Department has released the Winter/Spring 2022 Activity Guide, providing recreation and library programs, learning opportunities, and resources that will be available to residents of all ages through April 2022. The Activity Guide provides registration dates, listings for fitness and active living classes, sports leagues, out-of-school activities, library programs and services, and more.

The Community Services Department offers recreational programs, services, and resources including:

- Youth volleyball, basketball, and soccer leagues – create your own team, or sign up as a free agent;
- Youth sports workshop – free clinics for pre-k through eighth grade interested in learning soccer and volleyball;
- Adult fast and slow-pitch softball, basketball, volleyball, and kickball – put your own team together, or sign up as a free agent;
- Out of school day camps – children can meet new friends, play sports and games, create crafts and enjoy social time; and
- Instructional classes such as sewing, painting, tap dance, hip hop dance, tai-chi and fencing – skill building activities for all ages.
